If you receive this notice before you enter into the contract, you may rescind the contract within 5 business days after you have received the notice. To rescind a contract, you must give notice in writing to the abovementioned operator. This notice should state that you have decided to rescind the contract, and it must be delivered personally or posted. If you rescind a contract, you are entitled to a refund of any money paid by you under the contract. Before deciding to enter into a contract or to rescind a contract, you should read and consider carefully the rest of this notice and the documents you received with this notice, including the check list of questions relating to retirement villages generally and the rules binding all persons residing at the abovementioned retirement village (“the village rules”).
2. RIGHTS UNDER THE RETIREMENT VILLAGES ACT 2004. The Retirement Villages Act 2004 (the Act) sets out various rights you have if you enter into a residence contract, and these rights cannot be excluded by contract. Some of these statutory rights are briefly described below.

(You can buy a copy of the Act from the Government Printer or access it by means of the Internet at www.thelaw.tas.gov.au).

Sections 6 and 8 – The right to stay

As a resident at a retirement village, you have a right of occupation of premises that will continue during your lifetime unless that right is terminated in accordance with the Act. The termination may be by agreement between you and the operator or, in certain circumstances, by the operator or by you acting alone. The Act offers some protection for your right of occupation of your premises. However, if the operator of the retirement village becomes insolvent, your right of occupation may be terminated by a mortgagee under a mortgage that was in existence at the date on which the Act came into effect.

Sections 9 and 10 – Ingoing contributions and service contracts

You will be able to enforce your rights under a service contract, or for repayment of your ingoing contribution (i.e. the lump sum paid on entry into the retirement village), against the operator or the owner of the land used for the village.

Section 14 – Accounts information to be provided at annual general meeting

The operator of the retirement village must hold an annual general meeting of residents and tenants before 30 November in each year. At that meeting it must present accounts showing recurrent charges, and how the amount of those charges was spent, for the previous year, and estimates of income from recurrent charges for the next year. Residents and tenants must have a reasonable opportunity to put questions.

Section 14C – Imposition of levies

A levy can be imposed in limited circumstances, such as where agreed to by a special resolution, as defined in section 3 of the Act, or where necessary due to the requirements of an Act or a court order or similar.

Section 19(1) – Copies of village rules and other documents

You will be entitled to receive, on reasonable request, a copy of your contract, a copy of the village rules and a statement of the amount to which you will be entitled if you cease to reside at the retirement village. If the village rules are altered, an amended copy of the rules will be given to you.

Sections 28 and 33 – Unreasonable village rules

An unreasonable village rule may be void, i.e. of no effect. A dispute as to whether a rule is unreasonable may be taken to the Director of Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading.

Section 28 – Disputes

If a dispute arises between you and the operator of the retirement village, either party will be entitled to apply to the Director of Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading for resolution of the matter. However, you must first follow the procedures for resolving disputes that are provided in the village rules before you make an application to the Director.

You should read such a contract carefully and seek advice if you are uncertain as to the meaning or effect of any terms. You should also be certain that you understand the rights and liabilities that are set out in the documents that you received with this notice.

IF YOU ARE UNCERTAIN AS TO ANY OF THE MATTERS SET OUT ABOVE, YOUR RIGHTS AND DUTIES UNDER THE CONTRACT OR THE PROVISIONS OF THE RETIREMENT VILLAGES ACT 2004, YOU SHOULD SEEK INDEPENDENT ADVICE FROM AN AUSTRALIAN LEGAL PRACTITIONER OR OTHER INDEPENDENT SOURCE.

IF, AFTER YOU BECOME A RESIDENT OF A RETIREMENT VILLAGE, YOU BELIEVE THAT ANY OF YOUR RIGHTS HAS BEEN INFRINGED, YOU SHOULD FIRST APPROACH THE OPERATOR AND, IF YOU ARE STILL NOT SATISFIED, YOU SHOULD SEEK INDEPENDENT ADVICE OR APPLY TO THE DIRECTOR OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND FAIR TRADING IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE RETIREMENT VILLAGES ACT 2004.
